

Praise Abba on Our 4th of July

"Let every thing that has breath praise Adonai. Halleluyah!" (Psalm 150:6)

Let's praise The Almighty! Cheerfully repeat after me: Praise Abba Father on the 4th of July!

Judah means praise. The Almighty is the Lion of Judah. A congregation that can praise is a congregation that can push through. It's an effective body. It's effective in a higher level of warfare, influence, wisdom, deliverance, it prospers at a greater level. A congregation that praises is the answer against the poison of the serpent that comes in subtly and sets the trap to paralyze the progress.

There must be a purpose to our praise because Praise has purpose and Praise is a weapon.

Praise pushes through the resistance mounted by the enemy.

Praise produces an atmospheric shift that opens gates and brings down obstacles for answers to push through.

Praise allows The Almighty to come inhabit with His presence. For The Almighty inhabits the praises of His people. He dwells there and where the Spirit of the Adonai is, there is freedom.

Praise produces freedom from the chains of heaviness to keep you tethered to the problem instead of persevering into the promise.

Praise produces in us a heart posture before the Lord of Humility, of lowering our pride, humbling ourselves, and allowing the Lord to perfect in us His refinement, His perspective.

Praise allows you to take on the perspective of your Abba Father, for it calls you up higher, it postures you into a position of focusing on pursuing the face of the Lord, the presence of the Lord, the will of our Abba Father, which elevates us to a far greater position in the spirit, which advances the natural.

When we praise the enemy cannot as easily poach our words and plant them to produce what is perilous, what is ensnaring, what robs us of the portion and table our Abba Father has prepared for us in the presence of our enemies. Our praise produces a life driven by purpose because a posture of praise causes us to seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and ALL these things shall be added unto us. Praise is a strategic position which gives us an advantage over the plans of the enemy. For Yeshua said: "behold I have given unto you power to trample upon serpents and scorpions and against all the Power of the enemy so nothing shall by any means hurt you (Luke 10:19)." Praise is a protective covering that combats the arrows and fiery darts of the wicked one. Part of the shield of faith is praise because praise is produced from the roots of faith pushing toward the Abba Father, towards the light, towards His power. Praise is the byproduct of faith, partnering with a tongue that produces life and honors the Lord. For He sits enthroned in the highest position. Praise transitions us out of exalting the problems we see, the giants we face, the warfare that is waged, and legally edifies and elevates the one who has the power to deploy the answer and deliver you in victory. Praise produces in us a hunger to press in. When we praise in trial, in hardship, when we praise while we are pressed, it produces the oil that permeates every area of our lives, that unleashes the anointing that breaks the yoke of bondage.

Yes, we will praise Him, and cheerfully repeat Praise Abba Father on our 4th of July! Shabbat Shalom!
