

Sing O Barren One

¹²Then you will call on Me, and come and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. ¹³You will seek Me and find Me, when you will search for Me with all your heart. ¹⁴Then I will be found by you," says Adonai, "and I will return you from exile, and gather you from all the nations and from all the places where I have driven you," says Adonai, "and I will bring you back to the place from which I removed you as captives into exile" (Jer. 29:12-14)

{A Little background}. When the month of Elul (the 6th month in the Hebrew Calendar) began last Thursday evening August 13, 2026, it marked the start of a period called the month of repentance/return or T'shuvah. Tishri 1 (the first of the 7th Hebrew month, on the evening of Friday, September 11, 2026) to Tishri 10 (the evening of Sunday, September 20, 2026), the evening of the Feast of Yom Kippur, are called the Ten Days of Awe. Together these ~forty days are also known as Yemei Ratzon, the Days of Favor. Modern Judaism teaches that these days of favor should be used to prepare for the solemn Day of Atonement, the day when the books are opened before The Almighty, where He evaluates each and every person. We who have accepted Messiah Yeshua should use these days to evaluate what aspects of our walk need re-evaluation so that we can experience unstoppable favor/blessing. These days can truly become Days of Favor for us, as they were for the children of Israel. We can repent and turn from those things that are standing in the way of His Favor/Blessings and begin to walk in the fullness of His Grace (desire and power to do His Will), so we can experience His colossal favor.

The rabbis in Judaism also teach that The Almighty is more available and attentive during the month of Elul (the Days of T'Shuvah). Scripture (in the verses from Jeremiah 29 above) teaches us that we can seek the Almighty and that we will find Him provided we search for Him with all of our heart. It also states that He will be found by us. This alone is enough to cause us to rejoice and sing. We have such an opportunity, Hallelu Yah!

I believe we are entering into a time where The Almighty is making it abundantly clear that we need greater intimacy with Him. In fact, more than a need, intimacy with Yah Adonai is THE only thing that will allow us to stay in tune with what He is doing in the times we live in. By intimacy I mean loving and serving Him out of a heart of love and gratitude while delighting in Him, not His system, not His religion, not His work – and to be sure, there is great pleasure and delight in doing His work. Which brings me to a song by the singing group, Kol Simcha, the group that allowed us to share our congregations name. Listen & meditate while we play this song: (Awake O Jerusalem, Joe Finkelstein, Kol Simcha, 1979 based on Isa. 52:1,2; Jer. 29:13,14; and Isa. 54:1,5)

♪ Awake, awake, oh Jerusalem. Rise up from the dust, captive daughter of Zion. You have forgotten, the Lord your maker, For I, even I, am He who comforts you.

You will seek me and you shall find me, When you search for me with all of your heart. You will come and pray to me, and I will listen to you, And I will be found by you. And I will restore your fortune, And I will gather you from all the places where I have driven you.

Shout for joy oh barren one, you who have borne no child. For your husband is your maker, and you are My people

Kol Simcha, it is time to worship Abba Father in Spirit and in Truth: "²³But an hour is coming – it is here now – when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people as His worshipers. ²⁴God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth" (John 4:23-24). Being sought by the Father Himself is a better guarantee than the promise that we will find Him when we seek for Him with all of our heart. Both result in finding Him, but He has infinitely better resources at His disposal to accomplish the search. In fact: "⁷Where can I go from Your Ruach? Where can I flee from Your presence? ⁸If I go up to heaven, You are there, and if I make my bed in Sheol, look, You are there too. ⁹If I take the wings of the dawn and settle on the other side of the sea, ¹⁰even there Your hand will lead me, and Your right hand will lay hold of me. ¹¹If I say: "Surely darkness covers me, night keeps light at a distance from me," ¹²even darkness is not dark for You, and night is as bright as day — darkness and light are alike" (Psalm 139:7-12) You see He is Omniscient, Omnipresent and Omnipotent. You say, is it really possible that we can be sought by the Father? Yeshua said it very clearly and His words are trustworthy. We must become true worshippers who esteem and practice worshipping the Father in Spirit (the Holy Spirit) and in (with) truth. In fact, verse 24 states that to truly worship the Father we MUST do so in Spirit and in Truth.

I want to be sought by the Father. In fact, I want our congregation to be sought by the Father. I want to be found by Him practicing Holy Spirit worship and living an integral life of truth. This is fundamental to our ministry and our congregation. I am compelled to remind us again today that: "³²We shall know the truth and the truth shall make us free." (John 8:32)

Our world does not love truth, as perfectly predicted by Scripture. People love lies and refuse to learn the truth. The current Believing World is much like the Samaritan world in Scripture: "You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews" (John 4:22). They do not really know and understand that their Messiah is the one who is from the Jews. How sad!

However, rest assured that in worshipping the Father with truth (and with His Holy Spirit), He WILL 'seek us and He WILL find us.' So, may we be found by Him rejoicing in Spirit and in Truth as we prepare to enter into His High-Holiday-Season. Amen! Shabbat Shalom!

Listen & meditate (again!) while we play this song:

(Sing O Barren One, J Chernoff, Lamb III, 1976, based on today's Parashat Ki Tetze Haftarah, Isaiah 54:1-10)

J"Sing O barren one, come and sing a joyful song. For the shame & blush of your youth shall be not remembered more Sing O barren one, I will prosper you again. For your children shall grow and grow, Established in righteousness.

For a brief, brief moment, did I turn away from you, from you. Now in great loving kindness, will I come and gather you

Sing O barren one, For through mountains and hills should move My loving kindness will never depart from you.

For a brief, brief moment, did I turn away from you, from you. Now in great loving kindness, will I come and gather you"
